3 The Devil's Drive

An Unfinished Rhapsody.

The Devil return'd to hell by two,
And he stay'd at home till five;
When he dined on some homicides done in ragoût,
And a rebel or so in an Irish stew,
And sausages made of a self-slain Jew —	5
And bethought himself what next to do,
"And," quoth he, "I 'll take a drive.
I walk'd in the morning, I 'll ride to-night;
In darkness my children take most delight,
And I'll see how my favourites thrive.	10
"And what shall I ride in?" quoth Lucifer then —
"If I follow'd my taste, indeed,
I should mount in a waggon of wounded men,
And smile to see them bleed.
But these will be furnish'd again and again,	15
And at present my purpose is speed;
To see my manor as much as I may,
And watch that no souls shall be poach'd away.
"I have a state-coach at Carlton House,
A chariot in Seymour Place;	20
But they 're lent to two friends, who make me amends
By driving my favourite pace:
And they handle their reins with such a grace,
I have something for both at the end of their race.

"So now for the earth to take my chance."

Then up to the earth sprung he;

And making a jump from Moscow to France,

He stepp'd across the sea,

And rested his hoof on a turnpike road,

No very great way from a bishop's abode.
