4 The Fause Ladye

"The water weets my toe," she said,
"The water weets my knee;
Haud up, Sir Knicht, my horse's head,
If you a true luve be!"
"I luved ye weel, and luved ye lang,	5
Yet grace I failed to win;
Nae trust put I in ladye's troth
Till water weets her chin!'
((7))
"Then water weets my waist, proud lord,	1.0
The water weets my chin;	10
My achin' head spins round about,
The burn maks sik a din —
Now, help thou me, thou fearsome Knicht,
If grace ye hope to win!"
"I mercy hope to win, high dame,	15
Yet hand I've nane to gie —	10
The trinklin' o' a gallant's blude
Sae sair hath blindit me!"
Sac sair fram Simur file.
"Oh! help! — Oh! help! — If man ye be
Have on a woman ruth —	20
The waters gather round my head
And gurgle in my mouth!"

"Turn round and round, fell Margaret,
Turn round and look on me —
The pity that ye schawed yestreen	25
I'll fairly schaw to thee!
"Thy girdle-knife was keen and bricht —
The ribbons wondrous fine —
'Tween every knot o' them ye knit

"Fond Margaret! Fause Margaret!
You kissed me cheek and chin —
Yet, when I slept, that girdle knife
You sheathed my heart's blude in!

"Fause Margaret! Lewde Margaret!
The nicht ye bide wi' me—
The body, under trust, you slew,
My spirit weds wi' thee!"
